Lakeside & Marblehead Railroad Book Author To Make Second Appearance at Schoolhouse Gallery

Castalia Ohio - July 11, 2000 - Peninsula native Dean K Fick, author of The Lakeside and Marblehead Railroad, will make a second appearance at the Schoolhouse Gallery on Main Street in Marblehead, Ohio, to sign copies of his new book. The event will occur this Saturday, July 15th, from 1:00 to 5:00 pm.

Copies of The Lakeside and Marblehead Railroad will be available for purchase during the book signing along with copies of The Toledo, Port Clinton and Lakeside Railway, a previously released title, which contains the history of one of northern Ohio's best electric interurban railroads. Together, these books tell the complete story of railroad transportation on the Marblehead Peninsula.

The two books are available now in Marblehead at the Schoolhouse Gallery and Danchisen Marathon Service, as well as in Lakeside at the Shade Tree and Heritage Hall. They are also available directly from the publisher by calling toll free 1-800-808-8030, or on the World Wide Web at www.mhpress.com
